

Partner Advisory Group

The FFNHA Partner Advisory Group (PAG) is both self-nominated and staff invited to get representation of a variety of different types of museums and historical societies along with geographic and age distribution throughout the heritage area.

The PAG meets via conference call with staff every eight weeks or so or six times per year.

The group selects one member from Missouri and one member from Kansas to serve on the Board of Trustees for one year.

The group selects a chair to work closely with FFNHA staff outside of calls. The current chair is Steve Novak.

The current members of the PAG are:

Alana Smith	Westport Historical Society and the 1855 Harris-Kearney House
Alinda Miller	Historic Lone Jack Battlefield and Museum
