

Partner Advisory Group

The FFNHA Partner Advisory Group is both self-nominated and staff invited to get representation of a variety of different types of museums and historical societies along with geographic and age distribution throughout the heritage area.

The group meets via conference call with staff every eight weeks or so or six times per year.

The group selects one member from Missouri and one member from Kansas to serve on the Board of Trustees for one year. Alexis Radil is the Kansas representative. The Missouri seat is vacant.

The group selects a chair to work closely with FFNHA staff outside of calls.
