

Tonganoxie Historical Society
 201 W. Washington St.
 Tonganoxie, KS 66086

May 11th, 2017
 10:00 AM – 2:00 PM

Time	Agenda Topic
10:00	Welcome and Introductions Kris Roberts (Tonganoxie Historical Society) – Site Introduction Adam Newhard (FFNHA) – First Time Attendees Welcome, General round of introductions
10:15	Kim Anderson and Suzanne Dennis (Deaf Cultural Center) – Deaf Cultural Center's Future and Vision - Kim and Suzanne, as board members, will share about the changes happening to help the museum go in the direction of telling stories about the Deaf community's struggles of breaking free from colonialism (exploiting economically) and systematic oppression and its journey to compassion and understanding. A 30 sec video clip about the most abhorred man in Deaf History – Alexander Graham Bell – will be shown to highlight one of the struggles imposed by AGB on Deaf children and adults since the infamous Milan Convention of 1881. This is a story hoped to be exhibited in the museum in the near future. Kim and Suzanne will share about DCC's most popular Hands-On program as well.
10:45	Cheryl Collins (Riley County Historical Society) – StEPS Presentation – Cheryl Collins will speak on behalf of the AASLH program for enhancement of historic sites. She will discuss how the program functions as well as a how it can benefit historic sites throughout the FFNHA area progress their museums in the current market trends
11:15	Staff Updates and Reports
12:00	Lunch and Announcements
1:00	Whitney Baker (KU Libraries Conservation Specialist) – Winter Seminar Series - In the last installment of Emergency Preparedness Series, KU's expert on the subject, will discuss how to protect collections in the event of disaster. Whitney will discuss the various means and methods of how to secure, recover, and care for various forms of collected materials in Archives and Museums.
2:15	After Hours Event – (Kris Roberts) – Tour of the Tonganoxie Historical Society Collections and Museum – Please join the friendly docents and staff of the Tonganoxie Historical Society as they share with you their site and their museum