

Johnson County Library
9875 W 87th St
Overland Park, KS 66212

January 12th, 2017
10:00 AM – 2:00 PM

Time	Agenda Topic
10:00	Welcome and Introductions
10:15	Angel Tucker and Ashley Smith – Race KC Project - In partnership with local educators and other partners, Johnson County Library and their Race Project KC program helps facilitate intentional dialogue about the structural forms of racism in America and Kansas City. They provide students a chance to share their own unique stories, break down barriers between diverse groups of students, and use their diversity to understand collective strengths.
10:45	Liz Hobson – Teaching with Freedom's Frontier Historic Places Using the Teaching with Historic Places format, Liz Hobson will discuss the process used in developing lesson plans utilizing primary and secondary sources specific to chosen places to promote historical thinking and literacy skills. Learn how you can develop lesson plans for your sites!
11:00	Staff Updates and Reports
12:00	Lunch and Announcements
1:00	Todd Maxton - Emergency Preparedness Planning: One thing that we all may face is the prospect of an emergency at our sites. Will you know what to do, who to contact and who is in charge? What even qualifies as an emergency? This event, as the first installment of the Emergency Preparedness Winter Seminar Series, will introduce us to the concepts of emergencies and how to begin creating a plan. Throughout the rest of the winter partners meetings we will continue with this theme and by May have learned all the steps to create plans for the sites at which we work.